ANTI-SHIPPING

LAW UPHELD

Supreme Court Says Webb-Kenyon Bill Is Constitutional and Booze Is Doomed.

Washington, Jan. 8.—In the most sweeping of all decisions upholding prohibition laws, the Supreme Court today upheld as constitutional and valid the Webb-Kenyon law prohibiting shipments of liquor from "wet" to "dry" States. It also sustained West Virginia's recent amendment to her law prohibiting importation in interstate commerce of liquor for personal use.

After having been vetoed by President Taft, who held it unconstitutional, and having been re-passed by Congress over his veto, the law was sustained by the Supreme Court by a vote of 7 to 2. Leaders of the prohibition movement declare it is to fight second only in importance to the proposed constitutional amendment.

Lawyers for liquor interests who heard the decision today admit it upheld and applied the law "in its fullest sense."

Chief Justice White announced the majority opinion to which Justices Holmes and Vandevanter dissented. Justice McReynolds, while agreeing with the majority decision, did not concur in the opinion.

"The all-reaching power of government over liquor is settled," said the Chief Justice in announcing the decision. "There was no intention of Congress to forbid individual use of liquor. The purpose of this act was to cut out by the roots the practice of permitting violation of state liquor laws. We can have no doubt that Congress has complete authority to prevent paralyzing of state authority. Congress exerted a power to co-ordinate the national with the state authority."

Wayne B. Wheeler, counsel for the Anti-Saloon League of America, who with Fred Blue, State Prohibition Commissioner of West Virginia, argued the case before the Court, made this statement on the Court's decision:

"The states now may prohibit the possession, receipt, sale and use of intoxicating liquor and not be hampered by the agencies of interstate commerce."

To Play At McKinney

"Turn of the Tide" to Be Presented This Friday Evening.

Such a splendid success was realized and so general was the commendation of the play "The Turn of the Tide," which was shown here by a home talent company a few weeks ago, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., that the local chapter has accepted an invitation to present the performance at two other points in the county. The first will be at McKinney next Friday evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The show there will be given under the auspices of the McKinney W. C. T. U., which is one of the liveliest organizations of the kind in the state. The local company which presents the play is a splendid one and will undoubtedly draw a crowded house. The comedy parts are very fine, and the whole show is a splendid one from beginning to end. Plans are being made to present the attraction at Hustonville probably some time next week, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. there.

PULASKI GOES DRY

The prohibition forces won by an estimated majority of 2,500 votes in the election held in Pulaski county Saturday on whether licensed saloons should be permitted after an absence of three years. The majority in the city for the dry element was 192 votes, the dries carrying all but one ward. This was the first time in the history that city of Somerset gave a majority for prohibition. The unofficial majority is given as almost 2,500 votes.

Pennybaker, one of the two surviving members of the once prosperous Shaker colony at Shakerstown, seven miles from Harrodsburg, has announced his intention of devoting the property owned by him to a home for the education of worthy girls, whose parents are unable to provide a suitable education for them. There have been negotiations between Dr. Pennybaker and the Presbyterian Synod of Kentucky to organize the institution, but is the intention of the donor that the home shall be undenominational. The property owned by Dr. Pennybaker is worth $75,000, and the building where he now resides contains 26 bedrooms and a number of spacious halls and other rooms.

Tom White, convicted of complicity in the assassination of James M. Marcus, in Breathitt county almost 14 years ago, was paroled from the Frankfort prison.

Moves the Puritan—The Puritan which is located one block from the square on Lexington street will this week be moved into the store room recently occupied by Dickerson & Carrier.

Sells Tobacco—A great deal of Garrard county's tobacco crop is being sold on the market this week. Good prices are being realized, as is the case with all of Garrard's products. One of the finest fruit crops raised in the state was raised in Garrard county.

Marsee—Mrs. D. White Marsee, died at the home of her parents in this county on Saturday evening at 6:30. Mrs. Marsee had been in bad health for some time and since the death of her husband, Mr. D. White Marsee, which occurred in August, she had constantly grown worse, until the end came. Mrs. Marsee was right in the prime of life, being 26 years of age. She was a devoted church member, a loving mother and daughter. She leaves her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Marsee, two children, three brothers and two sisters to mourn her loss.

Senator's Race—Mr. Jay Harlan, of Danville was in our city on last Thursday and announced that he is a candidate for State Senator. From his announcement he bases his whole claim for election upon the fact that it is Boyle county's time. He loses sight of the fact that it has been twelve years since Garrard had a Senator and within that time each of the other three counties, Lincoln, Boyle and Casey has had an opportunity to furnish a Senator. If Boyle gave up her place and time to one of the other counties she simply lost it and that is no reason why Garrard should give up her time to Boyle. With Hon. H. Clay Kauffman as our candidate it will take a great deal more convincing argument than Mr. Harlan has made to convince the people of the district that Garrard should not furnish the next Senator. His argument really sounds childish and unbecoming for one running for such an important office. Mr. Kauffman has been tried and we know what he can do and will do and we think it not good politics to "swap a tried horse for an untried one."

Friends of Hon. J. R. Mount are urging him to enter the race for State Senator. Mr. Mount is a leading hardware merchant of this city and an ex-representative of this county. If Mr. Mount should enter the race he would not only vote for submitting the state-wide amendment but will go further, than the gentlemen already announced and vote for state-wide and national prohibition.

Welcome Visitors.—The Christian and Presbyterian Endeavors, had two welcome guests at their Endeavor Society Sunday in the persons of Miss Georgia Dunn and Mr. Evans, devoted workers of the State C. E.

Here, There, Everywhere

John W. Newman, of Versailles, former State Commissioner of Agriculture, is pushing his candidacy for director of Louisville Farm Loan Bank.

Dr. Chas. McKnight, a dentist, who married a daughter of Wesley Duncan, of Monticello, was burned to death in his office at Oneida, Tenn., Dec. 21st. He formerly lived in Wayne county.

Mrs. Victoria Brown Mitchell, 77, died at Nicholasville, she was a well known educator, having taught in the schools of Boyle and Jessamine counties for 45 years. She was the mother of the late J. Willard Mitchell a prominent Democratic politician.

J. N. Sharp, of Knoxville, formerly of Williamsburg, died suddenly at his home on Dec. 25th. He was well-known in this section, having served as Commonwealth's Attorney of the Whitley district for two terms, and has held other public offices.

Charles Bourne, 4, the son of Morris Bourne of Jessamine county, died of blood poisoning. He was injured Christmas morning while playing. He had a short piece of kindling in his mouth and fell, the splinter sticking through the jaw, coming out near the ear.

The stock of the Deatherage Grocery and Hardware Company was destroyed by fire at Barbourville last week. The loss of $3,500, of which $1,500 is covered by insurance. The building was owned by John N. Insley. His loss is about $1,200. The Croly Hardware and Grocery Company suffered a loss of $1,500 by fire and water, fully covered by insurance.

Court Day A Busy One

Politicians Via With Cattle and Mules for Public Interest.

January Court Day in Stanford was a busy one. The people were here, stock was plentiful, buyers were eager and last but not least, the song of the candidate is being heard in the land, and the festive game of politics was given quite an auspicious start for the new year. As remarked, Monday was really a good Court Day. The weather was more like May than January, too.

A great big crowd was in town. Most everyone was feeling good. Tobacco right at 20c, wheat around $2, hogs at $10, cattle holding up well, corn in like shape, every farmer has good reason to be satisfied with living conditions under the great democratic administration. And most of them are, too. There were about 600 cattle on the market at the Jones stock yards, and trading was fairly brisk all day, though nothing of extra quality was brought to town. A big demand developed for mules and buyers were very busy. Aged and broken hybrids were principally in demand, however, and these sold up to $200, according to the class of the animal. Seven and a quarter cents a pound was the top figure of the day on cattle but few were classy enough to command that point, however. Most of the "regulars" were on hand. Stanford is now recognized as one of the cattle markets of the state and buyers are always here from far and near on a court day.

A great deal of politics was heard during the day. Of course, all of the county candidates were on the job. In addition the two candidates for State Senator were as busy as birds. Hon. Clay Kauffman, of Garrard, got in early with a raft of good boosters and as he is some handshaker himself, no moss grew on him during the day. Hon. Jay Harlan, of Boyle, came over later but brought a wheelhorse democrat with him in the person of Col. Robert G. Evans, and they were on the job in the interest of the Danville man every minute of the time.

Considerable interest was injected into this race by the receipt of postal cards from Hon. J. R. Mount, of Lancaster that he will in all probability be a candidate for the office. His entry would give Garrard two candidates in the race. Mr. Mount was telling his friends that if he runs he will not only favor the submission of the state-wide prohibition amendment to vote of the people, but that he will be in favor of its adoption after it is submitted. This is a step further than either of the two announced candidates have gone in their public declarations, as yet, and would undoubtedly win Mr. Mount a lot of votes, should the other two not declare themselves unequivocally on this question, which is now the paramount political issue. There were some rumors heard here Monday that Hon. Charles F. Montgomery, of Casey county who represented this district most creditably during the last two senatorial sessions, might be a candidate for re-election. Some talk was heard also that there might be a "dark horse" from Lincoln in the race, but just who he might be was not stated.

New Cashier Chosen

M. E. Wheeldon Elected At Popular South End Institution.

News from Waynesburg, in the southern section of the county is to the effect that M. E. Wheeldon has been elected cashier of the Waynesburg Deposit Bank to succeed E. L. Gabberry, resigned. Mr. J. A. Hays was elected president of this popular financial institution some weeks ago to succeed L. G. Gooch, but declined to give more of his time to other business. It is understood. Both of the new officials are very popular and well qualified for the places they have taken. The Waynesburg bank has just declared its usual dividend, carried a nice amount to its surplus fund and is in a very flourishing condition. The new officials will do all in their power to make it still further useful to the splendid community in which it is located.

BURCH TO MAKE RACE.

County Attorney W. S. Burch, who has been under treatment at Dr. W. J. Edmonson's Sanatorium, at Cray Orchard, for the last two weeks, will leave Tuesday, greatly improved but will leave at once for Alabama, upon the advice of his physician, for a month's rest from business. Upon his return, he stated to a reporter of the I. J., he will announce his candidacy for County Attorney, and asks his friends not to pledge themselves.

ADDS TO HIS MARION FARM.

P. H. Corminey goes to Bradfordsville this week where he plans to spend about a month on his farm, and with his brother, J. J. Corminey. The former owns a nice tract of land in that section and when there recently bought about 40 acres more, which gives him an attractive boundary of land.

YOUNG and old will laugh all evening at McKinney Friday evening.

Two negro convicts from Bath county burned to death in a fire which almost destroyed the Frankfort penitentiary Monday night.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Most Effective

Wright's Coolness

All That Prevented Disastrous Auto to Smash at Shelby City.

Col. J. E. Wright, proprietor of the Kentucky Jack Farm near Junction City, had a very close call to being killed by a train at the L. & N. crossing at Shelby City Sunday. He was driving with Mrs. Wright and her father, Col. Jones, of Columbia, Tenn., to catch the train at Junction City, when the westbound passenger train whizzed by the crossing. Mr. Wright had the presence of mind to turn the car down the track as he saw the train and he was in, and this in all probability saved the lives of all in the car. The fender and other parts of the car were badly smashed, but luckily the occupants escaped with nothing more than some severe bruises and a bad shaking up.

CLOSE CALL IN FLOOD

Two Lincoln county men, of the McCormack's Church section, had a close call from the high waters which raged after the heavy rains last week. They were Arthur and Oscar Sharpe, of the McCormack neighborhood but who recently bought a farm from George Crane near Perryville. The young men had started to the Perryville farm with a wagon load of farming implements. They attempted to cross Knob Lick creek. A heavy rain above caused the stream to come down in a flood. The team, wagon, implements and boys were caught in the raging waters and carried down stream at a lively rate. The whole outfit went beneath a flood gate and were repeatedly sent beneath the water. The boys landed in a shallow place which was surrounded by deep water. After regaining their strength sufficiently they were enabled to swim ashore by heroic efforts. The two horses were left entangled in the harness and almost dead. Help was secured and the horses were finally gotten out. The bed of the wagon, rear wheels and farming implements disappeared entirely. No trace of them has been found. The front wheels were the only part of wagon that was saved.

TWO REAL ESTATE DEALS

Real Estate Agent A. B. Florence, of Stanford, made two nice sales last week. For H. J. McRoberts he sold the house and lot at the corner of Main and Darst streets to Mrs. Wallin for $825. For Miss Jennie Lawrence and Jesse Lawrence, he sold their farm on the Lancaster pike, about six miles from Stanford, to Senator R. L. Hubble. This adjoins the farm of Logan Hubble in the White Oak section, and makes a nice addition to his boundary of land. Mr. Florence is actively "on the job" for his clients at all times and is preparing to start a nice spring advertising campaign for those whose places he has on his list for sale.

NEW MEMBER OF FIRM.

Marion R. Reynolds, was in town Saturday with President J. A. Hays, of the Waynesburg Banking Company. Mr. Reynolds has bought out the half interest of Logan Estes in the firm of Hays & Estes, general merchants and produce dealers and buyers on Buck Creek, and will be actively in charge of the business at their popular establishment. Mr. Reynolds has been appointed a Notary Public and was in town to file his papers. He is thus empowered to attest papers of any sort and will be a great convenience to all in that section of the country who have business of any sort to transact.

CUPID'S CAPERS

Everett Marksbury, 23, and Miss Ollie Haggard, 21, were married at the courthouse here on Dec. 27th. Garfield Griffin, 24, type setter, and Miss Pearl Cummins, 16, were married at John Cummins' on Dec. 29th. Michael Geary, 25 and Miss Ruth Stewart, 21, were married at Danville on January 2. The People's Bank of Perryville has increased its capital stock from $15,000 to $25,000.

WAYNEBURG FARM SALE.

Col. J. H. Daigh, of the well known real estate firm of Millard & Daigh, of Waynesburg, was in Stanford Monday. He reported that his firm had just closed the sale of the P. D. McCoy farm to Harry Todd, the consideration being $1,000. There are about 45 acres in the tract which it located about a mile from the metropolis of the South End.

DICK COBB BUYS A CAR.

BRISCO Cobb, of Danville, who was here Monday demonstrating his new model Buick machines, sold a handsome runabout to Richard Cobb, Jr., just over the Boyle line. The car has 35-horse power and is a nice looking roadster which Dick will find very handy to make his trips over the country in.

LATEST WAR NEWS

Keeping up their forward movement along the railroad line into Moldavia, Field Marshal von Mackensen's forces have taken Fokshani, and with it nearly 4,000 prisoners and some cannon and machine guns. The capture of this fortress apparently places Galatz in great danger.

CATRON BUYS KING PLACE.

Henry Catron, of the Cedar Creek section, bought the George King place of 18 acres, with nice improvements, last week, for $3,000. Mr. King will have a sale preparatory to leaving, which he is advertising in today's paper.

Riffe On Program

Of Road Engineers' Convention At Bowling Green Next Week

County Road Engineer McKee Riffe will go to Bowling Green next week, when probably the greatest gathering of good road workers ever held in Kentucky, will be held. This will be the annual convention of the County Road Engineers' Association, which will be in session Jan. 17, 18, 19 and 20. Mr. Riffe is on the program for a discussion of Concrete Bridges, on the afternoon of the 19th, a subject which he is very competent to handle intelligently and interestingly for Lincoln county has just completed installation of a number of splendid concrete bridges on the pikes which have been under reconstruction the past year.

This is the first time such a meeting has been held in Western Kentucky and advantage is taken of the fact that the Rock Asphalt Mines are located nearby and that all delegates will be given a free trip. They will also have an opportunity to inspect the excellent roads in Warren and adjacent counties and especially the old state pike which was built some seventy-five years ago.

The Railroad Companies throughout the state have kindly agreed to give reduced rates to the meeting such to be in effect from the 16th, to the 19th and good until the 21st, and the Attorney General of Kentucky has ruled that a Fiscal Court has legal right to appropriate money to pay the entire expenses of the court in attending the meeting.

The program has been arranged so that only practical problems will be discussed. One-half day will be given over entirely to the County Judges of the State, and owing to the fact that the meeting is being held at a time of the year when no road work is being done, there is no reason why at least two or three thousand people should not be in attendance.

It is a known fact that Conventions of this kind are necessary in order that work may be done more efficiently. Bankers, Railroad men, Newspaper men, Traveling men all have such meetings where they discuss their particular line of business and it is absolutely necessary for the good of both counties and state that the meeting be well attended by the various Fiscal Courts.

It is expected that many magistrates will attend this meeting, inasmuch as it is recommended by both State Department and the Attorney General more proficient in the handling of road matters in their counties. The expenses incurred by such a trip are most trivial compared to the great benefits received.

Lived At Milledgeville

Pastor At Brooksville, Dedicates New Christian Church

His many friends back in Lincoln are greatly pleased over the fine work which Rev. W. V. Wilkinson is as pastor of the Christian church at Brooksville, Bracken county. Rev. Wilkinson is a former Milledgeville boy. A recent issue of the paper there said:

On January 7th, the new Christian church of Brooksville was dedicated. F. M. Rains, secretary of the Foreign Missionary Society of Cincinnati, O., had charge of the dedicatory service. It is a commodious and beautiful building. The ideal has not been for beauty of architecture alone but convenience as well. This church is second to none in that county among the Disciples. With several large Sunday school rooms, large auditorium the church is able to take care of any of the conventions that may desire to convene in the capital of Bracken. We rejoice that we are able to do the work of the Master more efficiently with our splendid equipment. Rev. Mark Collis, of the Broadway Christian church, of Lexington, began a series of meetings on Monday night following the dedication.

RURAL CARRIER EXAMINATION

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for the county of Lincoln, Kentucky, to be held at Stanford, instead of Stanford and Danville, on January 27, 1917, to fill the position of rural carrier at Stanford and vacancies that may later occur on rural routes from other post offices in the above-mentioned county. The examination will be open only to male citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of a postoffice in the county and who meet the other requirements set forth in Form No. 1977. This form and application blanks may be obtained from the offices mentioned above or from the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C. Applications should be forwarded to the Commission at Washington at the earliest practicable date.

BAD HABITS

Those who breakfast at eight o'clock or later, lunch at twelve and have dinner at six are almost certain to be troubled with indigestion. They do not allow time for one meal to digest before taking another. Not less than five hours should elapse between meals. If you are troubled with indigestion correct your habits and take Chamberlain's Tablets, and you may reasonably hope for a quick recovery. These tablets strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Obtainable everywhere.

Tilden Blanton, son of former County Judge W. H. Blanton of Breathitt county, following an assault on Ryland C. Musick, attorney, as he left the courthouse was indicted in the Breathitt circuit court by the grand jury for assault and battery.

BECE TALKS TO HOG BREEDERS

Local Man On Program At Farmers' Week—Interesting Sessions At Lexington Last Week

Quite a number of farmers from Lincoln county and other counties in this section of the state, attended the Farmers' Week conventions at Lexington last week. R. T. Bruce, of this city, who is one of the most prominent breeders of the famous Kentucky Red Berkshire hogs in this section, was on the program of the Swine Breeders' Association, for a short talk on Co-operation Among Breeders. Those who heard him say that Mr. Bruce handled his subject in an interesting way and gave his hearers some facts and advice that is bound to be helpful. Officers elected by this association were: W. W. Johnson, Danville president; Hughes Atkinson, Mt. Sterling, vice president; Hubert Vreeland, Louisville, secretary-treasurer; Executive Committee, Dr. L. R. Huffman, Centerville; J. Lewis Letterie, Harrods Creek; Frank McKee, Versailles; J. E. Rouse, Payne's Depot; T. J. Hudson, McAfee and W. B. Turley.

The Jack stock breeders of the State organized a State association to be known as the Kentucky Jack Breeders' Association. Officers were elected as follows: W. P. Hayes, of Nelson county, president; Prof. J. J. Hooper, of Lexington, vice president and Prof. W. S. Anderson, of Lexington, secretary-treasurer. The following Board of Directors was chosen: O. A. Troutman, Jessamine county; J. F. Cook, and T. B. Adams, Fayette; Sam P. Cecil, Boyle, John Veach, Mercer; Joseph E. Wright, Lincoln; J. R. Knox, Boyle and J. F. Dye, Fleming.

The sheep breeders' meeting attracted the largest crowd of the week. Addresses were delivered by Dr. Richard Stevenson, of Lexington, president; Clarence LeBus, of Cynthiana and Lexington, and Jonas Weil, of Lexington. Mr. Weil discussed the growing of sheep in association with cattle, showing that the combination could be made practicable and profitable.

Mr. LeBus' subject was "Sheep as a Money Maker." The speaker declared that he did not believe in specializing in any stock, but if forced to choose one among the various varieties of farm stock, he'd select sheep. "If I didn't make but twenty five cents on the lamb and wool crop, I would consider myself ahead," he declared. "Sheep more than earn their board as weed destroyers. It is the only stock on which you can declare a dividend of one hundred per cent, and at the same time feed stuff that you can not sell."

Mr. LeBus took an original view of the dog menace. "Often when dogs get into a flock and kill a dozen sheep, the doctor has to be called for the owner. If he would think straight a moment he would laugh instead of groan. Why, if the dogs killed half his flock he'd still be away ahead. I have kept them successfully in the limits of Lexington and I am going to have a flock there this spring. The dogs will come, but there won't be anything to worry about."

"I have come to the conclusion that the dog tax law is an injury to the industry rather than a benefit. It used to be we could kill stray dogs, and sheep losses were smaller. This dog law virtually licenses the dogs to eat mutton, and makes us raise sheep for them to eat." The speaker advised farmers to get their boys interested in sheep, first because they would give the youngsters a fat bank account and second for the good of the boys themselves. He recommended small flocks—twenty to sixty—over large flocks. Care, which involved frequent change of pasture, he said, was the most important success factor in growing sheep.

In addressing the Jack Stock Breeders' Association Commissioner of Agriculture Cohen pointed to an instance of double taxation which he declared was unjust. Owners of 1-769 jacks in Kentucky must pay a license fee and then pay taxes on the value of the animal. The same applies to stallions. Three jacks from the Cook Farm were judged on the stage in the Armory at the afternoon session.

BRODHEAD FAIR OFFICERS

The Brodhead Fair Association held its annual meeting of stockholders last week and elected the following directors: J. G. Frith, A. J. Haggard, R. H. Hamm, W. E. Gravely, A. E. Albright, C. H. Frith, Granville Owens, R. S. Shivel and J. W. Tate. The directors then met and elected the following officers: J. G. Frith, president; W. E. Gravely, vice-president; Granville Owens, secretary and treasurer. The fair dates will be as usual the third week in August, which will be the 15th, 16th and 17th of August.

The Habit of Taking Cold

With many people taking cold is a habit, but fortunately one that is easily broken. Take a cold sponge bath every morning when you first get up out of bed—not ice cold, but a temperature of about 30 degrees F. Also sleep with your window up. Do this and you will seldom take cold. When you do take cold take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and get rid of it as quickly as possible. Obtainable everywhere.

GREAT TEMPERANCE VICTORY.

The action of the U. S. Supreme Court in upholding the constitution-ality of the Webb-Kenyon law, is probably the greatest victory the temperance forces have ever won in the nation. It means the sure coming of state-wide and nation-wide prohibition that will prohibit. It means that a great number of men who will be for prohibition that will prohibit, will now take a stand for state-wide in Kentucky, for with this act of the supreme court, no booze can henceforth be shipped into dry territory from outside states.
With a slight amendment to the Kentucky laws, which the next legislature will undoubtedly make, preventing shipment within the state, dry counties and dry territory will in reality be dry, if the laws of the state and the nation are enforced by officials.

And just to think, the United States Supreme Court says the Webb-Kenyon law is constitutional, after our great governor A. O. Stanley declared that it was not constitutional, and as a member of congress voted against it for that reason, so he said, at the time.

WHERE DO YOU COME IN, JIM?

A Lexington newspaper in December offered a prize for the first baby born in that city on Christmas day, and an Ashland paper last week offered a prize for the first baby born there in 1917. Neither of these contests was fair. Notice too short.
Along about the first of March we are going to announce a prize for the first baby born in Harrison county

Editor of Interior Journal, Stanford, Ky.
Dear Sir:

Enclosed find draft of $1.50 for the payment of my subscription to the Interior Journal another year.
This is a habit I formed 50 years ago.
The Journal was born in 1860, I can not just give the month of the year or the day of the month of the year but old Lincoln in the month of September 1860, but with an idea well established in my mind that some day I would wander back to the haunts of my childhood and sure enough in the spring of 1865 found the located at McKinney Station, not a railroad station but an old Indian station, however, the two stations are now one and the same place joining that station I first saw the light of day on the 27th day of October 1840. You will observe that I am no spring chicken but my neighbors call me a game old rooster all the same.
I have always had a few individuals as correspondents since I left old Lincoln until now and the Interior

McRoberts & Bailey

Journal is all that is left for me now.
The others have crossed over on the other side of the river. I will check this train of thought as it creates or is liable to, melancholy which I have always aimed to avoid. I won't say a great deal on politics because everybody is pleased, but T. R. and he has gone to the fragile ends. I will give you a few prices on the products of this part of the world: Corn 80 to 85 cents per bushel; wheat
$1.75; oats 50 to 55 cents; butter 30 cents a pound; eggs 35 cents per dozen; hogs $10.50; good beef fat $10 to $11.50. Please excuse all of my writing faults.
C. D. HOCKER.

When told that he had inherited $100.00, Lewis C. Dodge, employed at a mine near Greely, Col., puffed his pipe and said he "guessed he'd better get back to work, as the boss did not pay him for loafing."

The eclipse of the moon began to make its appearance Sunday night at 12 o'clock at which time it was perfectly clear and it was covered over by a shadow. At 12:30 it had clouded up with breaks through the clouds at intervals so it could easily have been seen at various times and at 12:30 a very bright star was shining in the west just a short way above the horizon, but as the clouds came over this beautiful bright star was hidden from view. At 12:55 the moon was almost covered by a shadow making it considerably darker all the while and at 1:30 the shadow had completely covered the moon and it was dark as midnight with the exception of the bright stars. The shadow had a bloody appearance and the total eclipse looked rather unpleasant to superstitious people. At 2 o'clock the eclipse was in full.

SEVEN YEARS OF SUFFERING ENDS

Tanlac Helps Man In Fight Against Health Worries.

After suffering seven years with his stomach, Clarence Flanagan, Clark and Central avenue, Cincinnati, has at last found the relief he was looking for. He found it in Tanlac.

With a "Tanlac Smile" he told his story to the Tanlac Man—

"For seven years I suffered with my stomach. My trouble began with a coated tongue, a bloated feeling after eating and now and then a little touch of heartburn.

"As time went on I felt worse. My appetite left me and then came headaches. I could not do as much work as I used to without getting tired. I was losing my strength.

"I took a simple medicine. I got a little relief, but soon I was worse than ever. Then I got scared.

"Often after meals I would double up with cramps. Cold sweats broke out.

"For days I fasted in hope of getting better. My bowels clogged up and needed constant dosing.

"My whole system was run down. I was cross, nervous and blue. My complexion became pasty.

"Then I started to take Tanlac. Now look," and Mr. Flanagan again called attention to his healthy, ruddy complexion.

"I have gained in weight, too," he continued. "This ought to tell you what I think of Tanlac and how sincerely and truthfully I recommend it to the people of Cincinnati.

"My health worries are all gone and I now feel better than I have felt for years."

Tanlac is sold exclusively in Stanford at The Penny Drug Store, E. R. Coleman, Proprietor.

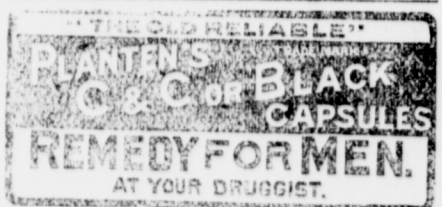

Tanlac can now be obtained in following nearby cities: Moreland, Abraham Minks; Hustonville, Adams Bros.; McKinney, True & Co.; Ellisburg, Joe McWilliams; Middleburg, W. C. It Was Midnight November 4th 1901 In Durham, N.C.

It was midnight, cold and dark. The calendar told the date—Monday, November 4th, 1901. They tell me I opened my eyes and blinked in the glare of the big electric lights. Around me were men in spotless white talking in low tones.

"Jim," one said, "we have been watching for this little fellow for a long while and now he's here."

Jim picked me up, looked me over, struck a match and took a long, deep puff. Then he took another.

"Gentlemen," he said, "He is perfect. Quality does tell. You can't fail to recognize good blood. His mother was a Virginian, his father an aristocrat of the Carolinas. He comes from the very best stock—the very sweetest, ripest, mellowest Virginia and Carolina tobacco, and we will raise him right in one of the whitest, cleanest, healthiest homes on earth."

Even then I was glad all over to hear his words. It is a great thing to have real breeding behind you, to know who your folks are. It starts a fellow right.

We Folks of the South KNOW good blood.

We Folks of the South KNOW good tobacco.

That is why I just had to have heaps of friends down South here. I want you, Mr. Reader, for one of my friends, and it means a whole lot when I say—

I am guaranteed by The American Tobacco Co. —Buy me. If you don't like me return me to your dealer and get your money back. I have said it. A Southern gentleman is known the world over for keeping his word, and I have given you mine.
